New Faculty Breakfast: Resources Available Through the Technology Transfer Office

Rick Silva, Director of Technology Transfer for UC Denver, will explain how faculty can access the resources of the Technology Transfer Office. All CU faculty are invited to attend this session. Learn how to tap into:

- ⇒ Proof of concept research grants
- ⇒ State funding for bioscience and bio-fuel research
- ⇒ Funding for patent applications
- ⇒ Consultation on commercialization questions that must be addressed in federal and corporate sponsored research proposals
- ⇒ Training on intellectual property for research groups and graduate students
- ⇒ Access to Fitzsimons BioBusiness Partners, an organization that supports CU spinout companies
